Part II Organizational Action

Attach additional statements if needed. See back of form for additional questions.

14. Describe the organizational action and, if applicable, the date of the action or the date against which shareholders' ownership is measured for the action.

During its fiscal year ending 07/31/15, Fidelity Covington Trust: Fidelity MSCI Real Estate Index ETF (the "Fund"), declared two (2) distributions to its shareholders. In September 2015, the Fund determined that its earnings and profits for its fiscal year ending 07/31/15 were insufficient to characterize the full amount of the distributions paid as dividends under IRC Section 301(c). As a result of this determination, a portion of those distributions has been characterized as return of capital.

15. Describe the quantitative effect of the organizational action on the basis of the security in the hands of a U.S. taxpayer as an adjustment per share or as a percentage of old basis.

The per share amounts identified as returns of capital below will reduce a shareholder's adjusted tax basis in its shares of the Fund. To the extent the return of capital exceeds the shareholder's adjusted tax basis in its shares of the Fund, such excess will be recognized as capital gain.

16. Describe the calculation of the change in basis and the data that supports the calculation, such as the market values of securities and the valuation dates.

The adjusted tax basis of each of a shareholder's shares of the Fund is decreased by the per share returns of capital, shown above, received with respect to that share. To the extent the return of capital amounts exceed a shareholder's adjusted tax basis in a Fund share, such excess would be recognized as capital gain from the sale or exchange of property.
17 List the applicable Internal Revenue Code section(s) and subsection(s) upon which the tax treatment is based. IRC Section 301(c), Section 316(a), Section 316(b)(4), Section 852(c).

18 Can any resulting loss be recognized? Not applicable

19 Provide any other information necessary to implement the adjustment, such as the reportable tax year. The information provided above will be reflected on the shareholder's 2015 Form 1099-DIV.
