

Tax Year 2017: Important Information for Massachusetts Residents

This information may assist you in preparing your Massachusetts state income tax return.

If, during 2017, you were subject to tax in Massachusetts and held shares of the Fidelity® Massachusetts Municipal Income Fund, the table below lists the percentages of any federally taxable distributions you received from this fund that may be exempt from Massachusetts state income tax. These distributions, which may be exempt from Massachusetts state income tax, represent exempt gains realized by each fund on the sale of certain securities.

To determine the amount of each capital gain distribution that may be exempt from Massachusetts state income tax, multiply the amount you received for each distribution by the exempt percentage listed in the table below. The amount of each capital gain distribution you received is reported:

- For Fidelity brokerage accounts, in the Supplemental Information portion of your 2017 Tax Statement — find the Details of 1099-DIV Transactions, Total Capital Gains Distributions Detail, column 2a.
- For Fidelity mutual fund accounts, in the Transaction Details section of your 2017 year-end Investment Report or your applicable monthly/quarterly account statement.

FUND NAME	FUND NUMBER	TYPE OF DISTRIBUTION	DATE OF DISTRIBUTION	EXEMPT PERCENTAGE
Fidelity® Massachusetts Municipal Income Fund	0070	Capital Gain	03/10/2017	8.60%
			11/28/2017	100%

We suggest that you consult your tax advisor, who is most familiar with your circumstances and the laws of the state in which you reside, to determine how you should report this information on your state income tax return.
