

2023: Important Information for Individuals about Foreign Tax Paid

The Fidelity funds listed below paid taxes outside the United States on income from foreign investments during 2023. These funds elected to pass through to their shareholders the foreign taxes paid on these investments. If you are a shareholder in one or more of these funds, you may be able to claim a credit or an itemized deduction on your federal tax return for your share of the amount of tax paid to foreign countries. Generally, a tax credit, if available, is more advantageous than a tax deduction.

Note: If you did not hold your shares for 16 days within the 31-day period beginning 15 days before the ex-dividend date, you may not be eligible to claim a foreign tax credit.

Finding Your Reportable Amount of Foreign Tax Paid by Your Fidelity Fund(s)

Fidelity reports your share of foreign tax paid by the funds you owned during the year on your 1099 Tax Reporting Statement:

For Fidelity Brokerage Accounts — Go to the Supplemental Information portion of your Tax Statement, find the Total Ordinary Dividends and Distributions Detail subsection under Details of 1099-DIV Transactions.

For Fidelity Fund (not brokerage) Accounts — See Form 1099-DIV, Dividends and Distributions section.

Claiming a Tax Deduction

To claim foreign tax paid as an itemized deduction, use IRS Form 1040, Schedule A.

Claiming a Tax Credit

To claim foreign tax paid as a tax credit, note the following:

- (1) If your total creditable foreign taxes paid are not more than $300 ($600 if married filing jointly) and you meet all the other requirements listed in the IRS Instructions for Form 1040, you may be able to elect to claim a foreign tax credit directly on Schedule 3 (Form 1040), without regard to the foreign tax credit limitation and without filing Form 1116, Foreign Tax Credit (Individual, Estate, or Trust). This election is not available to estates or trusts.
- (2) If your total creditable foreign taxes paid are more than $300 ($600 if married filing jointly) or you are otherwise ineligible to take advantage of reporting the foreign tax credit directly on Schedule 3 (Form 1040), you generally will be required to file Form 1116, Foreign Tax Credit (Individual, Estate, or Trust), with your Form 1040. When completing Form 1116, you may be required to report your share of foreign taxes paid by each fund and your foreign source income received from each fund.

Finding Your Ordinary Dividends Amount per Fund

For Fidelity Brokerage Accounts — Go to the Supplemental Information portion of your Tax Statement, find the Total Ordinary Dividends and Distributions Detail subsection under the Details of 1099-DIV Transactions.

For Fidelity Fund (not brokerage) Accounts — See Form 1099-DIV, Dividends and Distributions.

For more information about calculating foreign source income attributable to foreign qualified dividends¹, or about reporting foreign taxes paid more generally, please see the IRS.gov website to access instructions to Form 1116 and IRS Publication 514.

We suggest that you consult your tax advisor, who is most familiar with your circumstances, to determine how to report foreign taxes paid on your tax return.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please visit our website at Fidelity.com/tax or call our client services line at 800-544-6666. Fidelity Representatives are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

¹ Qualified dividends are generally dividends on stock from domestic corporations and certain qualified foreign corporations for which certain holding period requirements are satisfied. Qualified dividends are taxed at reduced federal income tax rates and those ordinary dividends that may qualify to be taxed at one of those reduced rates are reported as qualified dividends on Form 1099-DIV.
