2009: Important Information for Connecticut Residents

Dear Fidelity Investor:

This letter provides information to help in preparing your Connecticut state income tax return.

Connecticut State Income Tax

If during 2009 you were subject to tax in Connecticut and held shares of the Fidelity Connecticut Municipal Income Fund, 100% of the federally taxable distributions you received from the fund may be exempt from Connecticut state income tax. In general, this amount represents net gains, realized by the fund on the sale of exempt securities. The fund made resulting capital gain distributions to its shareholders on January 16, 2009, and on December 18, 2009. Generally, you should report these capital gain distributions on Line 47 of Schedule 1, Form CT-1040 (Connecticut Resident Income Tax Return).

The amounts of these capital gain distributions you received are reported as follows:

- For Fidelity Brokerage Accounts, see the Detail Information section (1099-DIV Dividends and Distributions, Line 2a) of your 2009 Tax Reporting Statement.
- For Fidelity Mutual Fund Accounts, see the Connecticut Municipal Income Fund entry on Form 1099-DIV Dividends and Distributions, column 2a of your 2009 Consolidated (1099) Tax Reporting Statement.

Connecticut Alternative Minimum Tax (AMT)

If you must calculate Connecticut AMT income, the table on the following page lists the percentages of specified private activity bond interest you received that may be exempt from Connecticut AMT, for each Fidelity Connecticut municipal fund. In general, these amounts represent interest on Connecticut private activity bonds, which you should report on Line 4 of Form CT-6251 (Connecticut Alternative Minimum Tax Return—Individuals).

To determine the amount of private activity bond interest that may be exempt from Connecticut AMT, multiply the private activity bond interest you received for each fund listed in the table below by the exempt percentage. The amount of private activity bond interest you received per fund is reported as follows:

- For Fidelity Brokerage Accounts, see the Detail Information section of your 2009 Tax Reporting Statement (1099-INT Interest Income, Line 9).
- For Fidelity Mutual Fund Accounts, see your 2009 Tax Reporting Statement (1099-INT Interest Income, Column 9).

Fund Name	Fund Number	Exempt Percentage
Fidelity Connecticut Municipal Income Fund	407	8.85%
Fidelity Connecticut Municipal Money Market Fund	418	4.94%

We suggest that you consult your tax advisor, who is most familiar with your circumstances and the laws of the state in which you reside, to determine how you should report this information on your state income tax return.
