

Tax Year 2012: Important Information for Maryland Residents

This information may assist you in preparing your Maryland state income tax return.

If during 2012 you were subject to tax in Maryland and held shares of the Fidelity® Maryland Municipal Income Fund or the Fidelity Advisor® Municipal Income Fund, the table below lists the percentages of any federally taxable distributions you received from these funds that may be exempt from Maryland state income tax. These distributions that may be partially exempt from Maryland state income tax represent exempt gains realized by the funds on the sale of certain securities.

The total federally taxable distribution amounts are reported by fund in your 1099 Tax Reporting Statement:

- For Fidelity brokerage accounts, in the Supplemental Information portion of your 2012 1099 Tax Statement—find the Details of 1099-DIV Transactions, Total Capital Gains Distributions Detail, column 2a.
- For Fidelity mutual fund accounts, in Form 1099-DIV Dividends and Distributions, column 2a.

FUND NAME	FUND NUMBER	TYPE OF DISTRIBUTION	DATE OF DISTRIBUTION	EXEMPT PERCENTAGE
Fidelity® Maryland Municipal Income Fund	429	Capital Gain	10/05/2012	84.76%
Fidelity Advisor® Municipal Income Fund: All Classes	Various	Capital Gain	12/07/2012	0.13%

We suggest that you consult with your tax advisor, who is most familiar with your circumstances and the laws of the state in which you reside, to determine how you should report this information on your state income tax return.
