2009: Important Information for Ohio Residents

Dear Fidelity Investor:

This letter provides information to help in preparing your Ohio state income tax return.

If during 2009 you were subject to tax in Ohio and held shares of the Fidelity Ohio Municipal Income Fund, 100% of any federally taxable distributions you received from this fund may be exempt from Ohio state income tax. These distributions that may be exempt from Ohio state income tax represent exempt gains realized by the fund on the sale of certain securities.

The total federally taxable distribution amounts are reported by fund in your 1099 Tax Reporting Statement:

- For Fidelity Brokerage Accounts, see the Detail Information section for 1099-DIV Dividends and Distributions.
- For Fidelity Mutual Fund Accounts, see Form 1099-DIV Dividends and Distributions.

We suggest that you consult with your tax advisor, who is most familiar with your circumstances and the laws of the state in which you reside, to determine how you should report this information on your state income tax return.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please call our Tax Reporting Line at 1-800-544-6666. Fidelity Representatives are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, or visit us on the Web at Fidelity.com/tax.

Sincerely,

Margaret Serravalli
