Investment Instructions—DE529 Education Savings Plan

Use this form to change how your future contributions are invested and/or to make an exchange of the contributions and earnings currently invested in your state-sponsored, Fidelity-managed DE529 Education Savings Plan account. Type on screen or fill in using CAPITAL letters and black ink. If you need more room for information or signatures, make a copy of the relevant page.

You can invest your 529 Plan contributions using one of two strategies: an age-based strategy or a custom strategy. Age-based portfolios are diversified across multiple asset classes, gradually shifting from aggressive to conservative as the beneficiary approaches college age, and can provide a one-portfolio option for allocating your account balance. A custom strategy allows you to create an investment mix using one or multiple portfolios that can include an age-based portfolio(s) as well as a static and/or individual portfolio(s). Static portfolios maintain a consistent investment objective regardless of age, while individual portfolios have a more targeted exposure to a single index or investments with an objective of preserving capital.

Note: If you select an age-based portfolio as part of an election update or a portfolio exchange, you will be placed in the portfolio managed to the target date that most closely aligns to the year the account's beneficiary is anticipated to start college. If you're interested in an age-based portfolio with a target date that is not aligned with your beneficiary's year of birth and college start year, please call a Fidelity representative.

3. Future Contribution Elections

Complete this section to change how all your FUTURE 529 College Savings Plan contributions are invested.

You may choose to allocate your contributions into one or more available portfolios listed below. Any elections below must be made in increments of 5%. This request will only be processed if your total allocation adds up to 100%.

Until changed, all future 529 Plan contributions will be invested according to the investment instructions detailed in this section. For more information about your investment options, please visit Fidelity.com/529-plans/investment-options, or refer to the plan's Fact Kit.

Note: Completing this section will only change your future allocation instructions and will not change the current investments in your account. To change the existing investments in your account, you MUST complete a portfolio exchange in Section 4.

[1]Although the underlying deposits are eligible for FDIC insurance, subject to applicable federal deposit insurance limits, the units of the Bank Deposit Portfolio are not insured or guaranteed by the FDIC or any other government agency. You are responsible for monitoring the total amount of your assets on deposit at the depository bank, including amounts held directly at the depository bank. All such deposits held in the same ownership capacity at the depository bank are subject to aggregation and to the current FDIC insurance coverage limitation of $250,000. Please see your 529 Fact Kit for more details.

[2]The Bank Deposit Portfolio is not an eligible investment selection for trust registrations.

Fidelity-managed 529 Savings Plan participants may not move or exchange money from the Stable Value Portfolio to the Bank Deposit Portfolio. Please carefully review your Portfolio selection before investing in a Fidelity-managed 529 Savings Plan. You may want to consult with a financial or tax professional before investing.

Portfolios exposed to an insurance wrap contract may be subject to additional risks. Please see "Insurance Wrap Contract Risk" in the Fact Kit for more information.

Units of the portfolios are municipal securities and may be subject to market volatility and fluctuation.

Please carefully consider the plan's investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses before investing. For this and other information on any 529 College Savings Plan, contact Fidelity for a free 529 Fact Kit or view one online. Read it carefully before you invest or send money.
