Change of Account Registration

Changing to an Individual, Joint, or Custodial Brokerage Account

Use this form to add or delete an owner on a brokerage Individual, Joint, or Custodial (UGMA/UTMA) account or to change any type of account (except a business, retirement, ABLE, or 529 Savings Plan account) into one of those accounts. Do NOT use this form to update account details (such as a change of address) or for any Mutual Fund Only account (account number begins with a 2 followed by two letters) that you want to remain a Mutual Fund Only account. Do NOT use this form for Annuities, Cash Management Accounts, Fidelity Managed Accounts, or Health Savings Accounts. Type on screen or fill in using CAPITAL letters and black ink. If you need more room for information or signatures, make a copy of the relevant page.

Helpful to Know

Requirements for a registration change vary widely depending on the types of accounts. Review "Change of Account Registration—Information" at the beginning of this form for important information regarding the requirements for your accounts.

- To change the registration of multiple accounts, submit a separate form for each account.
- In certain circumstances, you will be assigned a new account number.
  - If a new account is required, you will need to wait until all recent transactions on the existing account (deposits, checks, bill payments) have cleared before submitting this form; otherwise, the transactions drawn on the existing account may not be processed. You will also need to re-establish any desired account features in the new account. They will not carry over from the existing account.
  - If a new account is not required, you will be able to keep your current account number and any existing account features (except checkwriting and options).
- If you want checkwriting on your account, all remaining and new owners must sign the Checkwriting form—even if you already have checkwriting on your existing account. Visit Fidelity.com/checkwriting to download the form.
- If debit card(s) have been issued to the joint owner(s) who are being removed from an account, you may call the number on the back of the card at any time to request these card(s) be closed. If the debit card(s) remain open after the joint owners have been removed, their debit card(s) will be deactivated.
- Note that if you use this form and your current account is a Mutual Fund Only account (first three characters of the account number are "2" followed by two letters), it will be changed into a brokerage account. DO NOT USE THIS FORM IF YOU WANT TO MAINTAIN YOUR MUTUAL FUND ACCOUNT. Instead, complete the Change of Account Ownership—Mutual Fund Only Accounts form.
- To avoid delays, be sure all CURRENT and NEW owners provide their information in the appropriate section(s) and sign this form (except owners who have proof of guardianship). Also, be sure to include ALL supporting documentation required for your particular type of request, as described in "Change of Account Registration—Information" at the beginning of this form.
- Registration changes can have tax and/or legal consequences. You may want to review this document with a tax, financial, or legal advisor.

- Understand that, upon issuer's request in accordance with applicable rules and regulations, Fidelity will supply your name to issuers of any securities held in your account so you might receive any important information regarding them, unless you notify Fidelity otherwise.
- Consent to have only one copy of Fidelity mutual fund shareholder documents, such as prospectuses and shareholder reports ("Documents"), delivered to you and any other investors sharing your address. Your Documents, if held in eligible accounts, will be householded indefinitely; however, you may revoke this consent at any time by contacting Fidelity at 800-343-3548 and you will begin receiving multiple copies within 30 days. As Documents for other investments become available in the future, these Documents may also be householded in accordance with this authorization or any notice or agreement you received or entered into with Fidelity or its service providers.

- Agree that upon transfer of assets due to any life event (death, divorce, etc.), and unless otherwise instructed, all dividend/interest income paid to the Transferor (Current Asset Holder) of $100 or less will be systematically allocated to the Transferee (New Asset Holder) receiving the largest share proportion of the account assets. If the account is transferred evenly, the dividend/interest income will be systematically allocated to the last transferee paid.
- Affirm that you could lose money by investing in a money market fund. Although the fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in the fund is not a bank account and is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. Fidelity Investments and its affiliates, the fund's sponsor, is not required to reimburse money market funds for losses, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the fund at any time, including during periods of market stress. Fidelity's government and U.S. Treasury money market funds will not impose a fee upon the sale of your shares.

If applying for margin:

- Hereby authorize Fidelity to hypothecate (lend) or rehypothecate, either separately or with the property of others, either to Fidelity or others, any property Fidelity may be carrying for you on margin or otherwise extending credit. This authorization applies to all of your margin accounts Fidelity carries and shall remain in force until Fidelity receives written notice of revocation or margin privileges.

To help the government fight financial crimes, federal regulation requires Fidelity to obtain and verify your name, date of birth, address, and a government-issued ID number before opening your account, and to verify the information. In certain circumstances, Fidelity may obtain and verify comparable information for any person authorized to make transactions in an account. Also, federal regulation requires Fidelity to obtain and verify the beneficial owners and control persons of legal entity customers. Requiring the disclosure of key individuals who own or control a legal entity helps law enforcement investigate and prosecute crimes. Your account may be restricted or closed if Fidelity cannot obtain and verify this information. Fidelity will not be responsible for any losses or damages (including, but not limited to, lost opportunities) that may result if your account is restricted or closed.
