Here are higher ed professionals can boost their marks in retirement planning

INTRO TO INVESTMENTS

While professors are go-to gurus in their professional lives, it's a different story when it comes to their investing knowledge. Many view themselves as "beginners." Only 29% aren’t sure of the investment mix of their retirement savings.

HEALTH CARE 101

When asked where they need financial help, the top response for professors is understanding Medicare/health care costs. Only 34% are sure of the investment mix of their retirement savings.

SAVINGS & YOU: A CLOSER LOOK

When asked where they need financial help, the top response for professors is understanding Medicare/health care costs.

- 42% say saving for retirement is their top financial priority.
- 54% of faculty members worry they might outlive their retirement savings.
- 15% has the highest rate of retirement savings for professors.

FOR MORE WAYS TO BOOST YOUR RETIREMENT PLANNING KNOW-HOW:

Fidelity offers extensive resources available in the workplace, such as its online Planning & Guidance Center.

According to Fidelity Investments® latest Higher Education Faculty Study, college professors give themselves a "B" grade for financial literacy.