

Tax Year 2018: Important Information for New Jersey Residents

This information may assist you in preparing your New Jersey state income tax return.

If, during 2018, you were subject to tax in New Jersey and held shares of the Fidelity® New Jersey Municipal Income Fund, 100% of the federally taxable distributions listed in the table below may be exempt from New Jersey state income tax. These distributions that may be exempt from New Jersey state income tax represents exempt gains realized by the fund on the sale of certain securities.

To determine the amount of each federally taxable distribution that may be exempt from New Jersey state income tax, multiply the amount you received for each distribution listed in the table by the exempt percentage.

The amount of each capital gain distribution you received is reported:

- For Fidelity brokerage accounts, in the Supplemental Information portion of your 2018 1099 Tax Statement, find the Details of 1099-DIV Transactions, Total Ordinary Dividends and Distributions Detail, column 2a.
- For Fidelity mutual fund accounts, find the Transaction Details Section of your 2018 year-end Investment Report or your applicable monthly/quarterly account statement.

The amount of each ordinary income distribution you received is reported:

- For Fidelity brokerage accounts, in the Supplemental Information portion of your 2018 1099 Tax Statement, find the Details of 1099-DIV Transactions, Total Ordinary Dividends and Distributions Detail, column 1a.
- For Fidelity mutual fund accounts, find the Transaction Details Section of your 2018 year-end Investment Report or your applicable monthly/quarterly account statement.
