

Tax Year 2019: Important Information for Ohio Residents

This information may assist you in preparing your Ohio state income tax return.

If, during 2019, you were subject to tax in Ohio and held shares of the fund(s) listed on the table below, you may have received federally taxable distributions that are partially or completely exempt from Ohio state income tax. In general, these amounts represent exempt gains or ordinary income realized by the funds on the sale of certain securities.

The amount of each capital gain and/or ordinary income distribution you received is reported:

- For Fidelity brokerage accounts, in the Supplemental Information portion of your 2019 1099 Tax Statement, find the Details of 1099-DIV Transactions, Total Ordinary Dividends and Distributions Detail section.
- For Fidelity mutual fund accounts, find the Transaction Details Section of your 2019 year-end statement or your applicable monthly/quarterly account statement.
