

2022 Section 163(j) Interest Dividend Information

A portion of the dividends from the funds listed below may be eligible to be treated by corporate (and certain other) shareholders as Section 163(j) interest dividends and thus as business interest income when determining the limitation on their business interest expense deduction.

To determine the amount of each dividend you received in calendar year 2022 that may be eligible to be treated as business interest income multiply the amount of ordinary dividend income that you received from each applicable fund by the corresponding Section 163(j) interest dividend percentage from the table that follows. The amount of each ordinary dividend you received is reported as follows:

For Fidelity Brokerage Accounts, in the Detail Information portion of your 2022 Informational Tax Reporting Statement, find the Details of Dividend and Distributions Transactions section, Total Ordinary Dividends and Distributions Detail, Total Ordinary Dividends.

For Fidelity Mutual Fund Accounts, in the Transaction Details Section of your 2022 year-end Investment Report.

The following example shows how a Fidelity® Balanced Fund investor would calculate the amount of each ordinary dividend that may be eligible to be treated as business interest income.

Ex-Date	Ordinary Dividends (from your 2022 Tax Reporting Statement or Investment Report)		Section 163(j) Interest Dividend Percentage (from table in this letter)		Portion of total ordinary dividends that may be eligible to be treated as business interest income
04/01/2022	$1,000	Χ	8%	=	$80
07/01/2022	$1,000	Χ	8%	=	$80
10/14/2022	$1,000	Χ	11%	=	$110
12/22/2022	$1,000	Χ	51%	=	$510
				=	$780

In this example, $780 may be eligible to be treated as business interest income.

Please note that business interest income treatment is generally inapplicable to dividends on fund shares that are not held for at least 181 days during the 361-day period that began 180 days before the applicable exdividend date. These holding period requirements do not apply, however, with respect to money market funds or certain funds that declare income distributions on a daily basis, as indicated in the footnote below.
